

PROTECTION OF PERSON AND PROPERTY (IRELAND) ACT, 1861.

LIST of all PERSONS Detained in PRISON under the STATUTE 44 VICT. c. 4.

Irish Office, }
1st February 1862.

W. E. FORSTER.

LIST of all PERSONS Detained in PRISON under the STATUTE 44 VICT. c. 4, intitled "AN ACT for the Better Protection of PERSON and PROPERTY in Ireland."

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
1	John W. Nally - -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th September 1860, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting to murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
2	William Kennedy - -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th September 1860, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Shooting at, with intent to do grievous bodily harm, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
3	Martin Halloran - -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th September 1860, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Intimidating divers persons, with a view to compel them not to pay rent, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
4	John McMorow - -	Dundalk -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th September 1860, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Riot and unlawful assembly, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
5	Bernard M'Hugh - -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th September 1860, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Intimidating certain persons with a view to compel them to give up their farms, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
6	Edward Sherin - -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th September 1860, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully and maliciously wounding and inflicting grievous bodily harm on a certain person, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
7	Richard Nally - -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th September 1860, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Shooting at and wounding with intent to murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
8	John Nally - -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
9	John Houkhan - -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th September 1860, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Assembling by night with divers persons, and causing certain arms to be delivered up by threats, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
10	Meithor Harris - -	Galway - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting persons to assault and injure a certain person, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
11	William Doolley - -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Arson, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
12	Denis Diver - - -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling, with divers other persons, to the terror of Her Majesty's subjects, for the purpose of disturbing the public peace, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
13	Richard Hodnett - -	Cork - - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Molestously assaulting and breaking into a dwelling-house, and assaulting and beating a person therein, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
14	John O'nealon - - -	Limerick - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Assembling by night in arms, assaulting a dwelling-house, and assaulting and beating a person therein, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
15	Patrick Gibbons - -	Galway - - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling with others, to the terror of Her Majesty's subjects, for the purpose of disturbing the public peace, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
16	Michael Gibbons - -	Galway - - -	The same as in preceding case.
17	John Gannon - - -	Galway - - -	The same as in preceding case.
18	Timothy Deeling - -	Limerick - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Writing and posting a notice threatening violence and injury to a certain person, for the purpose of deterring him from serving legal process, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
19	John Kavanagh - - -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Shooting at and wounding with intent to murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
20	Thomas Winkershill -	Galway - - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Assembling by night in arms, molestously assaulting dwelling-houses, and assaulting and robbing persons therein, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
21	John King - - - -	Galway - - -	The same as in preceding case.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
23	Patrick Quinlan - -	Limerick -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Assembling by night in arms, and assaulting and wounding a certain person, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
23	William Quinlan - -	Limerick -	The same as in preceding case.
24	Patrick F. Doyle - -	Limerick -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Assembling with others by night in arms, assaulting a dwelling-house, and assaulting and wounding a person therein, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
25	Patrick Murphy - -	Clonmel -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Arson, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
26	Thomas Brennan - -	Kilnashham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting persons to commit riot and assault for the purpose of obstructing and preventing the execution of process of the law, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
27	Malachy Coffey - -	Limerick -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Riot and assault, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
28	Cornelius Kelleher -	Limerick -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling with others and maliciously attacking and injuring a dwelling-house, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
29	Michael Harrington -	Limerick -	The same as in preceding case.
30	Edward Vailly - -	Galway -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
31	Thomas Vailly - -	Galway -	The same as in preceding case.
32	John Faherty - -	Galway -	The same as in preceding case.
33	John Rouse - -	Galway -	The same as in preceding case.
34	Patrick Rouse - -	Galway -	The same as in preceding case.
35	Lawrence Sherin - -	Nass -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Arson, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
36	Daniel M'Sweeney - -	Dundalk -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting persons unlawfully to assemble together, and to commit riot and assault, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
37	Timothy Harrington	Galway	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting persons to unlawfully assemble together and commit riot, for the purpose of obstructing and preventing the execution of process of the law, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
38	Charles O'Bairne	Galway	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully causing to be delivered a threatening message requiring persons to desist from following their lawful occupations, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
39	Timothy Dolan	Galway	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
40	Patrick Keogh	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
41	Edward Foley	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
42	Maurice Monahan	Limerick	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Riot and assaulting constables, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
43	Patrick Gallagher	Dundalk	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting persons to commit riot and assault, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
44	Michael Ryan	Nass	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting persons to assemble unlawfully for the purpose of intimidating certain bodies from the discharge of their duty, and to commit riot and assault, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
45	James Lee	Coomel	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling with others by night, to the terror of Her Majesty's subjects, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
46	John Riordan	Limerick	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling with others and maliciously assaulting and attacking a dwelling-house, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
47	Andrew Connor	Limerick	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling with others and maliciously assaulting and attacking a dwelling-house, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
48	John Sweeney	Galway	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
49	Thomas Cunningham	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
50	Joseph Hehan	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
51	David W. Cahill - -	Clonsmel - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling with others, and maliciously assaulting and breaking into a dwelling-house, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
52	John McInerney - -	Limerick - -	The same as in preceding case.
53	John Ryan - - -	Dundalk - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
54	John Darcy - - -	Dundalk - -	The same as in preceding case.
55	Martin Bermingham -	Dundalk - -	The same as in preceding case.
56	Joseph B. Cox - - -	Dundalk - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting persons to commit riot and assault, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
57	Owen Brodway - - -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling, with others, for the purpose of disturbing the public peace, and inciting to riot, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
58	Edward Barrett - -	Galway - - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Writing, and causing to be received, threatening notices, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
59	James Cull - - - -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling, with others, to the terror of drivers of Her Majesty's subjects, for the purpose of disturbing the public peace, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
60	Patrick Duffy - - -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Arson, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
61	James Crotty - - -	Limerick - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling by night with others and maliciously assaulting a dwelling-house, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
62	John Callaghan - -	Limerick - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Riot and assaulting constables, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
63	Michael Callaghan -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
64	Michael Hussey - -	Limerick - -	The same as in preceding case.
65	James John Griffin -	Clonsmel - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling with others to the terror of drivers of Her Majesty's subjects for the purpose of disturbing the public peace, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison to which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
66	John Ryan - - -	Limerick - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Intimidation for the purpose of preventing a person from following his lawful occupation, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
67	John O'Callaghan - -	Limerick - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Intimidating diverse persons for the purpose of preventing them from taking a certain farm, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
68	John Courance - - -	Limerick - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Maliciously demolishing certain walls and fences, and committing other damage to property, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
69	John O'Connor - - -	Kilmainham - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of reasonable practices.
70	Michael Connolly - -	Galway - - -	The same as in preceding case.
71	Martha Spellman - -	Galway - - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Causing to be posted divers threatening notices requiring others not to deal or hold communication with certain persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
72	Michael Glennon - -	Galway - - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Causing to be posted a threatening notice requiring certain persons to quit and give up their employment, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
73	Patrick Shuttery - -	Limerick - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Riot and shooting at with intent to murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
74	Thomas Tovey - - -	Galway - - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Instigating persons to intimidate diverse others with a view of compelling them to abstain from the payment of rent, committed in a prescribed district, and being the tending to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
75	James Cahill - - -	Nass - - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Intimidating diverse persons with the view of preventing them from dealing with others, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
76	William Meliam - - -	Nass - - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Intimidating others with the view of preventing them dealing with others, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest is the Warrant under which he is Detained.
77	Bartholomew Murphy	Cloamall	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling with others, and maliciously assaulting and breaking into a dwelling-house, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
78	Thomas O'Connell	Limerick	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting persons to intimidate driven others with a view of compelling them to abstain from the payment of rent, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
79	Michael Walsh	Galway	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Shooting at with intent to murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
80	Charles Stewart Parnell, M.P.	Kilmainham	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:— I. Inciting other persons wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate driven persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing what they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order. II. Inciting other persons wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate driven persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing what they had a legal right to do, namely, to apply to the Court under the provisions of the Land Law (Ireland) Act, 1881, to have a fair rent fixed for their holdings, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order. III. Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of treasonable practices.
81	John McNamara	Limerick	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawful assembly and firing into a dwelling-house, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
82	Frank McNamara	Limerick	The same as in preceding case.
83	James J. O'Kelly, M.P.	Kilmainham	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of treasonable practices.
84	William O'Brien	Kilmainham	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of treasonable practices.
85	James Lyne	Nass	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate driven persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, loading or hiring out their threshing machines to certain other persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
86	Daniel Lennon - -	Nass - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say :- Instigating others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to sell to and deal with certain other persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being the instigator to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
87	John Deheny - -	Nass - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say :- Instigating others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to buy from and deal with certain other persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being the instigator to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
88	Cornelius Doyle - -	Limerick - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say :- Instigating others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to work for and deal with a certain person, committed in a prescribed district, and being the instigator to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
89	Thomas Tuohy - -	Omagh - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say :- Wrongfully and without legal authority intimidating divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
90	Michael McGreeh - -	Nass - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say :- Instigating others wrongfully, and without legal authority, to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to sell to and work for certain persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being the instigator to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
91	Henry Brennan - -	Galway - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say :- Unlawfully assembling with others to the terror of Her Majesty's subjects, for the purpose of disturbing the public peace, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
92	Patrick Gillian - -	Galway - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say :- Writing and posting threatening notices, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
93	James Carey - -	Nass - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say :- Wrongfully and without legal authority intimidating divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
94	John Byrne - - -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to work for and sell to certain other persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
95	Gregory Murphy - -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
96	Thos. J. O'Dempsey -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
97	Edward P. Kelly - -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to buy from and deal with certain persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
98	George O'Toole - - -	Dundalk - -	The same as in preceding case.
99	John Harle - - -	Onagh - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to buy from, sell to, and deal with certain persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
100	Joseph Smith - - -	Dundalk - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully, and without legal authority, to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to sell to and deal with a certain person, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
101	Patrick Lalor - - -	Limerick - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to buy from and take meadowing from certain persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
102	Joseph E. Kenny, M.D. -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
103	Michael J. Nolan - -	Limerick - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of treasonable practices.
104	John Healy - - -	Limerick - -	The same as in preceding case.
105	William Moore Stack -	Limerick - -	The same as in preceding case.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
106	Patrick J. Quinn -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
107	John R. Heffernan -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
108	John Dillon, M.P. -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
109	Patrick Corbett -	Galway -	The same as in preceding case.
110	Wm. Ahernara -	Clonsilla -	The same as in preceding case.
111	Daniel Connell -	Limerick -	The same as in preceding case.
112	James Daly -	Limerick -	The same as in preceding case.
113	Michael Power -	Limerick -	The same as in preceding case.
114	John R. O'Gorman -	Nass -	The same as in preceding case.
115	Patrick O'Brien -	Nass -	The same as in preceding case.
116	William Dorris -	Dundalk -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
117	Denis H. O'Connor -	Nass -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
118	Joseph B. Murphy -	Nass -	The same as in preceding case.
119	Patrick McDowell -	Limerick -	The same as in preceding case.
120	John Rea -	Nass -	The same as in preceding case.
121	William Manshan -	Limerick -	The same as in preceding case.
122	John D. Kelleher -	Nass -	The same as in preceding case.
123	Edmond Ryan -	Nass -	The same as in preceding case.
124	William FitzSimons -	Monaghan -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Wrongfully and without legal authority intimidating diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
125	Bryan Clune - -	Naas - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rates lawfully due by them committed in a prescribed district, and being the instigator to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
126	Matthew Clune - -	Naas - -	The same as in preceding case.
127	Cornelius P. O'Sullivan	Naas - -	The same as in preceding case.
128	William O'Brien - -	Limerick - -	The same as in preceding case.
129	John Hallaway - -	Limerick - -	The same as in preceding case.
130	Michael Bush - -	Limerick - -	The same as in preceding case.
131	John Mulligan - -	Kilmainham - -	The same as in preceding case.
132	Dominick Flynn - -	Kilmainham - -	The same as in preceding case.
133	Patrick Gannon - -	Galway - -	The same as in preceding case.
134	John Reynolds - -	Galway - -	The same as in preceding case.
135	Daniel W. Curtin - -	Naas - -	The same as in preceding case.
136	Leke P. Hayden - -	Galway - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to buy from and sell to and deal with certain persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being the instigator to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
137	William Hanley - -	Galway - -	The same as in preceding case.
138	John Dolan - -	Galway - -	The same as in preceding case.
139	Patrick Burke - -	Galway - -	The same as in preceding case.
140	Michael Nowl - -	Galway - -	The same as in preceding case.
141	John Mangin - -	Dundalk - -	The same as in preceding case.
142	James Lynott - -	Dundalk - -	The same as in preceding case.
143	John Callen - -	Kilmainham - -	The same as in preceding case.
144	John Cantwell - -	Naas - -	The same as in preceding case.
145	Patrick McKean - -	Dundalk - -	The same as in preceding case.
146	Patrick Moagher - -	Naas - -	The same as in preceding case.
147	John McSweeney - -	Limerick - -	The same as in preceding case.
148	Michael Ryan (Wall) - -	Naas - -	The same as in preceding case.
149	James Holden - -	Naas - -	The same as in preceding case.
150	Patrick Coyle - -	Dundalk - -	The same as in preceding case.
151	Thomas Neill - -	Naas - -	The same as in preceding case.
152	Patrick P. O'Neill - -	Naas - -	The same as in preceding case.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
153	Joseph R. Cardiff -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to buy from and sell to and deal with certain persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
154	Peter Whelan -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
155	Thomas Moran -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
156	J. M. Wall -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
157	John T. Haffernan -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
158	Edward J. Houre -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
159	John Cantwell -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
160	Patrick O'Egan -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
161	Bernard Ennis -	Naas -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting persons wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with the view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
162	James Gilheoley -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
163	Joseph Ryan -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
164	Denis Kelly -	Galway -	The same as in preceding case.
165	Andrew Gallagher -	Naas -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to buy from and sell to and deal with certain persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
166	Patrick Gallagher -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
167	Thomas Myles O'Reilly -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
168	Patrick Henay -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
169	Patrick Gernley -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
170	John J. Cantwell -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
171	Martin P. Kenny -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
172	John Houlihan -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
173	John Hagrove -	Clewistown -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
174	Thomas McCarthy	Clovel -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to send their children to a certain school, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
175	James Dundon	Clovel -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Maliciously setting fire to a stack of straw, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
176	Thomas Gara	Galway -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Assaulting and beating a certain person, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
177	James Molloy	Dundalk -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to work for and deal with a certain person, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
178	John O'Neill	Dundalk -	The same as in preceding case.
179	Thomas McLoughlin	Armagh -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling with others, maliciously assaulting a dwelling-house, and committing a person therein, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
180	Thomas Cunniffe	Galway -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
181	Patrick Morrissey	Dundalk -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
182	Patrick Herlihy	Clovel -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to buy from, sell to, and deal with certain other persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
183	Denis O'Leary	Clovel -	The same as in preceding case.
184	Patrick Larkin	Galway -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Posting a threatening notice, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
185	Cornelius Sullivan	Clovel -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Shooting at and wounding a certain person, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
186	Sylvester Poff	Clovel -	The same as in preceding case.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
187	Patrick Driscoll	Cork	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Shooting at and wounding a certain person committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
188	Thomas Morrissey	Dundalk	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
189	James Monahan	Galway	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Assembling with others, attacking a dwelling-house, and assaulting persons therein, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
190	Patrick Tschill	Galway	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Assembling with others by night and firing into a dwelling-house, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
191	James Nockley	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
192	James M'Hugh	Galway	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Assault and robbery, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
193	Denis Conroy	Kilmainham	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Raising others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate others persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rates lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
194	John Duran	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
195	Patrick Connell	Limerick	The same as in preceding case.
196	Bernard Byrne	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
197	Martin Hootan	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
198	John Burke	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
199	Jeremiah Leahy	Naas	The same as in preceding case.
200	Patrick Carroll	Limerick	The same as in preceding case.
201	Philip O'Sullivan	Naas	The same as in preceding case.
202	James Tuite	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
203	Matthew J. Murphy	Naas	The same as in preceding case.
204	John W. Finn	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
205	Denis Cronin	Kilmainham	The same as in preceding case.
206	James A. Harris	Kilmainham	The same as in preceding case.
207	William Nicholas	Limerick	The same as in preceding case.
208	Timothy Kett	Limerick	The same as in preceding case.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
209	Patrick O'Brien	Limerick	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1890, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inducing others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate drivers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inducing to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
210	John Donnelly	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
211	Patrick Maricham	Cloamuel	The same as in preceding case.
212	Richard Colbourne	Cloamuel	The same as in preceding case.
213	Matthew Keane	Cloamuel	The same as in preceding case.
214	Michael Ryan	Kess	The same as in preceding case.
215	Thomas G. Griffin	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
216	Patrick Falsam	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
217	Lawrence Mahony	Kess	The same as in preceding case.
218	Patrick Minogue	Cloamuel	The same as in preceding case.
219	James Naughton	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
220	Francis Dinneen	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
221	Thomas McGrath	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
222	Thomas Coyne	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
223	James G. Dooley	Cloamuel	The same as in preceding case.
224	John O'Dowd	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
225	William Kennedy	Cloamuel	The same as in preceding case.
226	Edward Carroll	Cloamuel	The same as in preceding case.
227	James Garland	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
228	Michael Teelin	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
229	James Horsman	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
230	John Walsh	Cloamuel	The same as in preceding case.
231	Patrick Leonard	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
232	William G. Fisher	Kess	The same as in preceding case.
233	John Keane	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
234	Jeremiah Harrington	Cloamuel	The same as in preceding case.
235	Denis O'Dwyer	Cloamuel	The same as in preceding case.
236	James Murphy	Cloamuel	The same as in preceding case.
237	James Keane	Armagh	The same as in preceding case.
238	Thomas Egan	Armagh	The same as in preceding case.
239	Thomas Lydon	Galway	The same as in preceding case.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
239	Thomas Dunneary	Galway	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say—Inducing others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to obtain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
241	Patrick Clegg	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
242	John Sheridan	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
243	John Connors	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
244	Peter Coghlan	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
245	Michael Leahy	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
246	William F. Molony	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
247	John Mulligan	Armagh	The same as in preceding case.
248	John Dewling	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
249	Patrick Ellis	Armagh	The same as in preceding case.
250	Peter Flower	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
251	John J. Bawenfield	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
252	William Foxon	Clonsilla	The same as in preceding case.
253	James Bryce Kellan	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
254	Francis Conway	Armagh	The same as in preceding case.
255	John O'Brien	Nass	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say—Inducing others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to obtain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to buy from and sell to and deal with certain persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
256	Michael McDonald	Nass	The same as in preceding case.
257	Patrick Russell	Nass	The same as in preceding case.
258	John O'Brien	Nass	The same as in preceding case.
259	Martin Malleson	Armagh	The same as in preceding case.
260	Patrick C. O'Connor	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
261	Patrick C. Kelly	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
262	John Ryan	Kilwortham	The same as in preceding case.
263	Pierce Maury	Kilwortham	The same as in preceding case.
264	Peter Broderick	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
265	Andrew Keary	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
266	Mark J. Codd	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
267	James R. Drew	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
268	John Deering - -	Nass - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to buy from, and sell to, and deal with certain persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being the instigator to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
269	John Fitzpatrick - -	Nass - -	The same as in preceding case.
270	Philip Healy - -	Dundalk - -	The same as in preceding case.
271	John O'Brien - -	Limerick - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Shooting at with intent to murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
272	Domnick Stewart - -	Limerick - -	The same as in preceding case.
273	James O'Connell - -	Monaghan - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being the instigator to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
274	William Harty - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
275	Michael J. Maginn - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
276	Patrick O'Keefe - -	Nass - -	The same as in preceding case.
277	Hugh Sweeney - -	Armagh - -	The same as in preceding case.
278	John L. White - -	Nass - -	The same as in preceding case.
279	Nicholas Toole - -	Nass - -	The same as in preceding case.
280	Edward P. Kelly - -	Nass - -	The same as in preceding case.
281	John Lyons - -	Nass - -	The same as in preceding case.
282	William Veale - -	Nass - -	The same as in preceding case.
283	Edward O'Connor - -	Armagh - -	The same as in preceding case.
284	James Power - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
285	Michael Lyons - -	Galway - -	The same as in preceding case.
286	James Brown - -	Dundalk - -	The same as in preceding case.
287	James Collins - -	Nass - -	The same as in preceding case.
288	Anthony Griffin - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
289	Edmond Dorem - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
290	Patrick Ward - -	Nass - -	The same as in preceding case.
291	Michael G. Clifford - -	Armagh - -	The same as in preceding case.
292	Joseph Fay - -	Kilrush - -	The same as in preceding case.
293	Joseph M. Johnson - -	Armagh - -	The same as in preceding case.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
294	John W. Power - -	Nass - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being the leading to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
295	Michael Mullane - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
296	James McDonagh - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
297	William Heary - -	Armagh - -	The same as in preceding case.
298	John McCarthy - -	Armagh - -	The same as in preceding case.
299	Francis Moran - -	Nass - -	The same as in preceding case.
300	Thomas Davis - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
301	Michael A. Wisden - -	Kilmainham - -	The same as in preceding case.
302	James O'Connor - -	Kilmainham - -	The same as in preceding case.
303	James Doyle - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
304	Patrick Killian - -	Galway - -	The same as in preceding case.
305	Thomas Killian - -	Armagh - -	The same as in preceding case.
306	John L. Neary - -	Armagh - -	The same as in preceding case.
307	Denis Lane - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
308	Timothy Sullivan - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
309	Owen Yoolin - -	Galway - -	The same as in preceding case.
310	Bryan Conlan - -	Armagh - -	The same as in preceding case.
311	Thomas Lynch - -	Armagh - -	The same as in preceding case.
312	Henry O'Mahony - -	Mounsthan - -	The same as in preceding case.
313	John Kelly - -	Armagh - -	The same as in preceding case.
314	Denis Somers - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
315	James Dowling - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
316	Terence Byrne - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
317	Patrick Nelson - -	Galway - -	The same as in preceding case.
318	James A. Scott - -	Kilmainham - -	The same as in preceding case.
319	Edmond Nolan - -	Nass - -	The same as in preceding case.
320	John Phanagan - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
321	Thomas Dunphy - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
322	Michael Whittaker - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
323	Michael Falahy - -	Limerick - -	The same as in preceding case.
324	J. J. Kelly - -	Armagh - -	The same as in preceding case.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
325	Philip J. O'Reilly -	Clonmel -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say—inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
326	William O'Leary -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.
327	Edmond Cotter -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.
328	Henry Burton -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
329	Arthur O'Keeffe -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
330	Henry L. Pilkington -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.
331	John Connaghan -	Galway -	The same as in preceding case.
332	John Glendon -	Galway -	The same as in preceding case.
333	James Brennan -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.
334	Cornelius J. O'Sullivan -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.
335	Francis Fullam -	Armagh -	The same as in preceding case.
336	Andrew Manning -	Nass -	The same as in preceding case.
337	John Egan -	Nass -	The same as in preceding case.
338	John J. Clancy -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
339	Thomas Kinahan -	Dundalk -	The same as in preceding case.
340	John Welch -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
341	James Huran -	Armagh -	The same as in preceding case.
342	Hugh Gaffney -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
343	James G. Skinner -	Nass -	The same as in preceding case.
344	William Barry -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.
345	Thomas Foy -	Armagh -	The same as in preceding case.
346	James Steinson -	Monaghan -	The same as in preceding case.
347	Nicholas H. O'Keefe -	Armagh -	The same as in preceding case.
348	Lawrence Bowe -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
349	Patrick Sinnott -	Nass -	The same as in preceding case.
350	John Williams -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.
351	David Doran -	Nass -	The same as in preceding case.
352	Henry B. O'Neill -	Dundalk -	The same as in preceding case.
353	William Hunt -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
354	Owen Mallon -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
355	Jasper O. Pyne -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
356	Thomas R. Begley	Clongowee	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
357	Michael Ryan	Clongowee	The same as in preceding case.
358	John Hayes	Clongowee	The same as in preceding case.
359	John McAleer	Armagh	The same as in preceding case.
360	Daniel Kelleher	Clongowee	The same as in preceding case.
361	Denis Griffin	Clongowee	The same as in preceding case.
362	John Burke	Clongowee	The same as in preceding case.
363	Matthew Reilly	Kilmainham	The same as in preceding case.
364	Peter Woods	Armagh	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Wrongfully and without legal authority, intimidating diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
365	Denis Cunningham	Kilmainham	The same as in preceding case.
366	Thomas Duggan	Kilmainham	The same as in preceding case.
367	Martin McIlwain	Kilmainham	The same as in preceding case.
368	Michael Callagy	Kilmainham	The same as in preceding case.
369	Thomas Cunningham	Kilmainham	The same as in preceding case.
370	Michael Furlong	Kilmainham	The same as in preceding case.
371	Peter Kelly	Kilmainham	The same as in preceding case.
372	Patrick Hassell	Clongowee	The same as in preceding case.
373	Thomas McKenna	Limerick	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Shooting at with intent to murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
374	Thomas Moore	Clongowee	The same as in preceding case.
375	Patrick Masterson	Kear	The same as in preceding case.
376	Lawrence Quinn	Armagh	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Shooting at with intent to murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
377	John Coffey	Armagh	The same as in preceding case.
378	Daniel Mahony	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
379	Cornelius Hickey	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
380	Bartholomew Hickey	Kear	The same as in preceding case.
381	Henry Williams	Clongowee	The same as in preceding case.
382	Jeremiah Reilly	Kilmainham	The same as in preceding case.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
283	Michael McGuire -	Nass -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Assault and wounding, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
284	Brian McGuire -	Clonsilla -	The same as in preceding case.
285	Hugh Smith -	Nass -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling by night with others and maliciously assaulting and firing into a dwelling-house, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
286	Lawrence Halpin -	Armagh -	The same as in preceding case.
287	Philip Cronin -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Shooting at and wounding with intent to murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
288	Corcoran Cronin -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
289	John Kelleher -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
290	Connelina Kelleher -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
291	Denis Leary -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
292	Maurice Gleason -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
293	Patrick Clinton -	Nass -	The same as in preceding case.
294	William Walsh -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
295	Corcoran Leary -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
296	Richard Goggin -	Clonsilla -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, sending their children to a certain school, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
297	James Seery -	Nass -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting to murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
298	Michael Walsh -	Nass -	The same as in preceding case.
299	Edward Fanning -	Clonsilla -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate a certain person with a view to compel him to abstain from doing a certain act which he had a legal right to do, namely, to follow his lawful occupation, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
300	Thomas Ryan -	Clonsilla -	The same as in preceding case.
301	John Galvin -	Clonsilla -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate a certain person with a view to compel him to abstain from doing a certain act which he had a legal right to do, namely, to follow his lawful occupation, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
402	James Linton - -	Kase - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling with diverse others and maliciously injuring and assaulting a dwelling-house, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
403	James Murphy - -	Galway - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully and maliciously wounding certain cattle, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
404	John Gannon - -	Galway - -	The same as in preceding case.
405	Thomas Daly - -	Galway - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully and maliciously shooting at and wounding a certain person, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
406	Patrick Barrett - -	Cloamuel - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Assembling with others in arms, maliciously assaulting a dwelling-house, and assaulting persons therein, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
407	John Sweeney - -	Cloamuel - -	The same as in preceding case.
408	Denis Ryan - -	Cloamuel - -	The same as in preceding case.
409	Edmund McGuire - -	Liseric - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully and maliciously wounding and causing grievous bodily harm to certain persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
410	Cornelius Healy - -	Cloamuel - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons, with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to buy from, and sell to and deal with certain persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
411	Edward Keane - -	Cloamuel - -	The same as in preceding case.
412	Martin Dillon - -	Cloamuel - -	The same as in preceding case.
413	Jeremiah O'Connell - -	Cloamuel - -	The same as in preceding case.
414	Michael Harle - -	Cloamuel - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
415	James Ryan - -	Kilmainham - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of treasonable practices.
416	Daniel Whelan - -	Kilmainham - -	The same as in preceding case.
417	Patrick Whelan - -	Kilmainham - -	The same as in preceding case.
418	Michael Marsh - -	Cloamuel - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Shooting at with intent to murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
419	Lake Armstrong -	Omagh -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1890, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Wrongfully and without legal authority intimidating divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
420	Patrick Arnold -	Armagh -	The same as in preceding case.
421	William Cople -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.
422	Patrick Carey -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.
423	John Coomeck -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.
424	John Haligan -	Drumalee -	The same as in preceding case.
425	Arthur Moloney -	Naas -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1890, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Intimidating others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to buy from, and to sell to, and deal with certain persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
426	Simon Makore -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
427	Thomas Cress -	Omagh -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1890, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Wrongfully and without legal authority intimidating divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
428	William Broderick -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
429	Bernard Quinn -	Armagh -	The same as in preceding case.
430	Patrick Simpson -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
431	William Gordon -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
432	Martin Fitzgerald -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.
433	Edward Hickey -	Omagh -	The same as in preceding case.
434	Bryan Daly -	Omagh -	The same as in preceding case.
435	Michael Lennon -	Omagh -	The same as in preceding case.
436	Michael Shiberly -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
437	John R. McCormack -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.
438	Michael Clane -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
439	Matthew Chuan -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.
440	James Collins -	Omagh -	The same as in preceding case.
441	John Eady -	Naas -	The same as in preceding case.
442	James Murphy -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.
443	Thomas Collier -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.
444	Christopher Levy -	Kilmainham -	The same as in preceding case.
445	Joseph Carew -	Omagh -	The same as in preceding case.
446	Cornelius Enright -	Clonmel -	The same as in preceding case.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
447	Matthew Gibson	Omagh	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say — Wrongfully and without legal authority intimidating diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
448	Thomas Kearney	Nass	The same as in preceding case.
449	William Murphy	Kilmainham	The same as in preceding case.
450	Petrisk Lavan	Omagh	The same as in preceding case.
451	Michael Shelley	Armagh	The same as in preceding case.
452	Thomas Howard	Kilmainham	The same as in preceding case.
453	John Moyle Mahony	Omagh	The same as in preceding case.
454	Thomas Kelly	Omagh	The same as in preceding case.
455	John McCarthy	Monaghan	The same as in preceding case.
456	John Farrell	Monaghan	The same as in preceding case.
457	Nicholas Barrett	Nass	The same as in preceding case.
458	Martin Holton	Omagh	The same as in preceding case.
459	Bernard Coyle	Nass	The same as in preceding case.
460	Michael Dillen	Monaghan	The same as in preceding case.
461	Peter Sweeney	Monaghan	The same as in preceding case.
462	Martin Owens	Omagh	The same as in preceding case.
463	Thomas Fisigan	Monaghan	The same as in preceding case.
464	Michael Cooney	Monaghan	The same as in preceding case.
465	Lewis Quinn	Monaghan	The same as in preceding case.
466	James Kennedy	Monaghan	The same as in preceding case.
467	Thomas Kighurey	Monaghan	The same as in preceding case.
468	Patrick Ruppe	Armagh	The same as in preceding case.
469	John Carley	Kilmainham	The same as in preceding case.
470	Patrick Carley	Nass	The same as in preceding case.
471	Martin Hynes	Omagh	The same as in preceding case.
472	John Moran	Monaghan	The same as in preceding case.
473	John Mella	Omagh	The same as in preceding case.
474	John Broderick	Monaghan	The same as in preceding case.
475	Michael McDermott	Armagh	The same as in preceding case.
476	Edmond Cahill	Clonmel	The same as in preceding case.
477	George Marshall	Clonmel	The same as in preceding case.
478	Thomas Connors	Limerick	The same as in preceding case.
479	Patrick Hanley	Galway	The same as in preceding case.
480	Michael Linnane	Galway	The same as in preceding case.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
431	Patrick Georghan	Omagh	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law that is to say:—Inciting to murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
432	Patrick McGinn	Dundalk	The same as in preceding case.
433	John Cronin	Cloamul	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting persons unlawfully to assemble with others by night and maliciously assault a dwelling house, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
434	Thomas Downey	Monaghan	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty as principal of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Shooting at with intent to murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
435	Andrew Downey	Omagh	The same as in preceding case.
436	Thomas J. Cunningham	Omagh	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate divers persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to buy from, and sell to, and deal with certain persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
437	Denis Mulligan	Kilmainham	The same as in preceding case.
438	William Quaid	Cloamul	The same as in preceding case.
439	Joseph Sheehy	Cloamul	The same as in preceding case.
440	John Fennelly	Nass	The same as in preceding case.
441	Thomas Brady	Monaghan	The same as in preceding case.
442	Peter Fagan	Omagh	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Shooting at and wounding with intent to murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
443	John Carroll	Armagh	The same as in preceding case.
444	Maureen FitzGibbon	Cloamul	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Maliciously assaulting a dwelling house, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
445	Charles Mulhall	Omagh	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Maliciously setting fire to a stack of hay, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
446	Michael Long	Cloamul	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Inciting others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate a certain person with a view to compel him to abstain from doing a certain act which he had a legal right to do, namely, to follow his lawful occupation, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
447	Bernard Molloy	Armagh	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1880, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Arson, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
448	Lawrence Leavoy	Kilmainham	The same as in preceding case.
449	James Leavoy	Omagh	The same as in preceding case.

No.	Name of Prisoner.	Prison in which he is Detained.	Ground stated for his Arrest in the Warrant under which he is Detained.
590	Richard Walsh - -	Omagh - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1890, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Laying others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to apply to the Court under the provisions of the Land Law (Ireland) Act, 1881, to have a fair rent fixed for their holdings, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
591	Patrick White - -	Armagh - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1890, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Laying others wrongfully and without legal authority to intimidate diverse persons with a view to compel them to abstain from doing a certain act which they had a legal right to do, namely, to pay rents lawfully due by them, committed in a prescribed district, and being the inciting to an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
592	Denis Hannigan - -	Nass - -	The same as in preceding case.
593	James Keating - -	Clonmel - -	The same as in preceding case.
594	Thomas Kerley - -	Kilmainham -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1890, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Maliciously setting fire to a stack of corn, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
595	Daniel Allen - -	Clonmel - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1890, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Arson, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
596	William Hoffmann -	Nass - -	The same as in preceding case.
597	Michael Fishery - -	Limerick - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1890, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling with others and maliciously assaulting a dwelling-house, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
598	Coleman Naughton -	Omagh - -	The same as in preceding case.
599	Patrick Costello - -	Armagh - -	The same as in preceding case.
610	Edward Wyer - -	Armagh - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1890, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Maliciously, unlawfully, and maliciously injuring a bridge with intent to render it impassable, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
611	Michael Walters - -	Armagh - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1890, been guilty, as accessory, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Writing letters threatening to murder, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of intimidation, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.
612	Patrick Kavanagh -	Omagh - -	Reasonably suspected of having, since the 30th day of September 1890, been guilty, as principal, of a crime punishable by law, that is to say:—Unlawfully assembling with others and assaulting certain persons, committed in a prescribed district, and being an act of violence, and tending to interfere with the maintenance of law and order.

Dublin Castle,
1st February 1892.

T. H. Burke,
Under Secretary.

PROTECTION OF PERSON AND PROPERTY
(IRELAND) ACT, 1881.

LIST of all PERSONS Detained in PRISON under the STATUTE 44 VICT. c. 4.

(Presented pursuant to Act of Parliament.)

Ordered, by The House of Commons, to be Printed,
7 February 1882.

1.

M.~11. 2. 82.

Under 3 oz.